

Additional Insureds – Let's be specific

If you write any manufacturing or contracting risks, you no doubt have been faced with the issue of additional insureds. Many times the insured is told that in order to be awarded a job, or be paid for one already completed, those to be named as additional insured must include, in addition to a specific name (Jones Brothers, Inc.), a list of unnamed entities (consultants, agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, etc.).