Agencies Reach New Heights in September for Chart Your Own Course

Three Agency Partners reached new levels this September in our Chart Your Own Course incentive program. Congratulations to Adam Stauffer of Stauffer & Wiggers, who reached the platinum incentive level – a significant accomplishment that earns him a $5,000 travel allowance!

We would also like to congratulate Mark Ten Haken of Access Insurance Agency, who reached the third tier for the gold incentive; and Mark Bone of Bailey Insurance and Eric Ringnalda of Garry L. Ringnalda Agency, both of which are continuing to climb within the first tier of the gold incentive level.

Finally, we welcome Jacob Bonnema of Ottawa Services Inc. to the first tier of the gold incentive level.

Thanks to all our Agency Partners who continue to made strides in the Chart Your Own Course program by bringing peace of mind to their customers through life insurance.

Click here for a complete listing of the September Chart Your Own Course standings.