

April Sales Bring May Travel in Life's Chart Your Own Course Program

In just one month, Adam Stauffer of Stauffer & Wiggers has progressed from the first tier of the Gold Incentive Level to second tier in our Chart Your Own Course program – congratulations, Adam! To reach the next level, Adam sold another eight policies and more than $2,000 in life premium, earning him an additional $1,000 travel allowance. It's that easy!

Nine other Agency Partners are making progress in the program, including two newcomers this month: David Sexton of A.S. Arbury & Sons and Daniel Steele of First Independent. To view the April standings, click here.

If you haven't taken advantage of Life's Chart Your Own Course program, you are missing out on the chance to earn up to $8,000 in travel allowances while bringing your policyholders the security and value of life insurance.
