

Binding Authority Suspended in Southeast

Due to the onset of Tropical Storm Arthur, Hurricane Arthur, Frankenmuth Insurance (FI) is issuing a suspension of binding authority notice in the states of Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and for all FI agents. This suspension will be effective as of 3 PM today (July 2, 2014), and it will remain in force until the storm threat has passed.

If you have any questions specific to this suspension of binding authority, please contact your Field Manager or Underwriter.