

BOP Self-Storage Premiums Reduced on Two Optional Coverages

Frankenmuth Insurance is pleased to announce decreased premiums for two optional coverages on BOP self-storage policies. The reductions, which take effect on Oct. 1, 2016, will be applied on the following optional coverages:

- Form 97261: Sale and Disposal of Customer's Property
- Form 97260: Storage of Customers' Property

Rate reductions vary by state and territory. For specific reductions in your area, please contact your Field Manager or Underwriter.

The BOP Self Storage policies are an important part of our Commercial Lines business, and the optional coverages provide added value and important protection for our mutual policyholders. These rate reductions ensure the competitiveness of our product, which we hope will aid you in retaining and gaining more commercial customers.
