Frankenmuth Insurance Suspends Binding Authority Due to Hurricane Delta

As a result of the increasing threat posed by Hurricane Delta, Frankenmuth Insurance is suspending binding authority in Alabama as of 12 p.m. Eastern Time/11 a.m. Central Time on Thursday, Oct. 8.

This binding authority suspension will remain in effect until further notice and applies to new business as well as increases in limits or additions of coverage on in-force policies.

Home Office approval is required to override the suspension. We will continue to monitor the situation and inform you when the suspension is no longer in effect. Please contact your field manager or underwriter with any questions regarding this binding authority suspension.

Frankenmuth Insurance remains committed to promoting the safety of our shared customers and protecting the businesses of our agency partners. For more information on Hurricane Delta, please visit the National Hurricane Center's website at www.nhc.noaa.gov.
