

Frankenmuth Insurance Suspends Binding Authority Due to Hurricane Ian

As a result of the threat posed by Hurricane Ian, Frankenmuth Insurance is suspending binding authority in South Carolina and North Carolina as of noon EST on Wednesday, September 28, 2022.

This binding authority suspension will remain in effect until further notice and applies to new business as well as increases in limits or additions of coverage on in-force policies.

Home office approval is required to override the suspension. We will continue to monitor the situation and inform you when the suspension is no longer in effect.

Please contact your field manager or underwriter with any questions regarding this suspension.

Frankenmuth Insurance remains committed to promoting the safety of our shared customers and protecting the businesses of our agency partners. For more information on Hurricane Ian, please visit the National Hurricane Center's website at www.nhc.noaa.gov.
