

Frankenmuth Insurance Suspends Binding Authority Due to Tropical Depression Fred

As a result of the impending threat posed by Tropical Depression Fred, Frankenmuth Insurance is suspending binding authority in Alabama, Georgia, and Florida as of 5 p.m. EST on Friday, August 13.

This binding authority suspension will remain in effect until further notice and applies to new business as well as increases in limits or additions of coverage on in-force policies.

Home office approval is required to override the suspension. We will continue to monitor the situation and inform you when the suspension is no longer in effect. Please contact your field manager or underwriter with any questions regarding this binding authority suspension.

Frankenmuth Insurance remains committed to promoting the safety of our shared customers and protecting the businesses of our agency partners. For more information on Tropical Depression Fred, please visit the National Hurricane Center's website at www.nhc.noaa.gov.
