“Learning Life Lessons” offered through Patriot Life Insurance

Again this year, Patriot Life Insurance is pleased to offer a sales workshop to assist producers in promoting life insurance to the clients they serve. “Learning Life Lessons” is being presented on Monday, April 8, 2013 at the Frankenmuth Insurance Home Office and again Tuesday, April 9, 2013 at the Amway Grand Hotel in Grand Rapids. Both half-day programs are free of charge and open to any Patriot Life Insurance producer.

Registration deadline for participation in either of the programs is rapidly approaching. To reserve your seat, please contact Kim Moncman (kim.moncman@fmins.com) no later than the end of business on Monday, March 18, 2013.

For more information about “Learning Life Lessons,” please see the links below, and as always, should you have any questions, comments or concerns, don’t hesitate to contact me at extension 2412: