

New Group Opportunity Available for Wisconsin Agency Partners

We're pleased to announce a new Commercial Lines group partnership with the Wisconsin Builders Association (WBA) is now available to all agency partners in Wisconsin, effective immediately.

Through this exciting partnership, current and prospective policyholders can take advantage of discounted rates for BOP and CPP, tailored insurance program coverage, educational opportunities with our Loss Control team, and more if they are a WBA member.

Becoming a WBA member is a great way to expand your agency's network, earn referrals and grow your business. To learn more, please visit www.wisbuild.org/why-join-wisconsin-builders-association. The WBA offers three membership tiers, with the local level starting at $37-525 per year, depending on each local association's dues. State and national membership options are also available.

We hope these exciting opportunities through our group programs make it even easier for your agency to do business with us. To reference the discount and commission rates for this group, as well as our complete list of group program and discount opportunities, please visit the Group Information section via the Marketing Tab located under Resources in Agency Services.

For questions, please contact Commercial Lines field manager Michelle Viscuso-Mauthe or Adam Abler at (800) 234-1133 extension 4285 or 4276, respectively.
