Notice of Binding Authority Suspension Due to Hurricane Matthew

As a result of the increasing threat posed by Hurricane Matthew in our Southeast region, Frankenmuth Insurance is suspending binding authority as of 4 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on Tuesday, Oct. 4. This binding authority suspension will remain in effect until further notice and applies to new business as well as increases in limits or additions of coverage on in-force policies.

States impacted by the suspension include:

- Alabama
- Florida
- Georgia
- South Carolina
- North Carolina
- Tennessee

Home Office approval is required to override the suspension. We will continue to monitor the situation and inform you when the suspension is no longer in effect. Please contact your Field Manager or Underwriter with any questions regarding this binding authority suspension.

Frankenmuth Insurance remains committed to promoting the safety of our shared customers and protecting the businesses of our Agency Partners. For more information on Hurricane Matthew, visit the National Hurricane Center's website at www.nhc.noaa.gov. We also encourage you to visit our Facebook and Twitter pages for helpful information related to hurricane safety you can share on your own social media channels to help policyholders weather this storm.