

Notice of Binding Authority Suspension in Georgia Due to Hurricane Florence

As a result of the increasing threat posed by Hurricane Florence, Frankenmuth Insurance is suspending binding authority in Georgia as of noon Eastern Time on Sept. 12, 2018. The complete list of states currently under this binding authority suspension include:

- Georgia
- North Carolina
- South Carolina

This binding authority suspension will remain in effect until further notice and applies to new business as well as increases in limits or additions of coverage on in-force policies. Home Office approval is required to override the suspension. We will continue to monitor the situation and inform you when the suspension is no longer in effect. Please contact your field manager or underwriter with any questions regarding this binding authority suspension.

For more information on Hurricane Florence, visit the National Hurricane Center's website at www.nhc.noaa.gov. We also encourage you to visit our Facebook page for helpful information related to storm safety you can share on your own social media channels to help policyholders weather this storm.