

Notice of Binding Authority Suspension in Southeast Region

As a result of the increasing threat posed by Tropical Depression Nine in our Southeast region, Frankenmuth Insurance is suspending binding authority as of 12 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on Wednesday, Aug. 31, 2016. This binding authority suspension will remain in effect until further notice and applies to new business as well as increases in limits or additions of coverage on in-force policies.

States impacted by the suspension include:

- Alabama
- Florida
- Georgia
- South Carolina
- North Carolina

Home Office approval is required to override the suspension. We will continue to monitor the situation and inform you when the suspension is no longer in effect. Please contact your Field Manager or Underwriter with any questions regarding this binding authority suspension.

Frankenmuth Insurance remains committed to promoting the safety of our shared customers and protecting the businesses of our Agency Partners. For more information on Tropical Depression Nine, visit the National Hurricane Center's website at www.nhc.noaa.gov. We also encourage you to visit our Facebook and Twitter pages for helpful information related to hurricane safety you can share on your own social media channels to help policyholders weather this storm.