

Southeast Region Binding Authority Reinstated

Although hundreds of roads and bridges remain closed across our Southeast Region, it appears that the worst of the flooding in this area has ended. As a result, Frankenmuth Insurance is lifting the binding authority suspension in Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina effective immediately.

We sympathize with our policyholders and Agency Partners in the Southeast Region who struggle to recover from the devastation brought by this storm and encourage everyone to remain vigilant and safe as the threat of flooding remains.
