

Frankenmuth Insurance Suspends Binding Authority Due to Hurricane Zeta

As our neighbors in the South and Southeast prepare for the threat posed by Hurricane Zeta, Frankenmuth Insurance is suspending binding authority as of 12 p.m. Eastern Time/11 a.m. Central Time on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 2020, in these states:

- Alabama
- Florida
- Georgia
- North Carolina
- South Carolina
- Tennessee

This binding authority suspension will remain in effect until further notice and applies to new business as well as increases in limits or additions of coverage on in-force policies.

Home Office approval is required to override the suspension. We will continue to monitor the situation and inform you when the suspension is no longer in effect. Please contact your field manager or underwriter with any questions regarding this binding authority suspension.

Frankenmuth Insurance remains committed to promoting the safety of our shared customers and protecting the businesses of our agency partners. For the latest information on Hurricane Zeta, please visit the National Hurricane Center's website at www.nhc.noaa.gov.
