

Loss History Report Reminder

When quoting a new policy, do your insureds ever question the details of a specific loss? By clicking on the Loss History Report button located at the top of the Loss History screen in IBIS, you will be able to view all the details for each loss. This will help answer more specific questions your insureds may have regarding their loss history.

Thank you for your continued support and please contact your Underwriting team or Field Manager with any questions.