

Take Advantage of FI & MIOSHA's Build Safe Contractor Safety Days

Frankenmuth Insurance is teaming up with the Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Administration (MIOSHA) to offer FREE half-day sessions focusing on safety, health, technical and management development for construction professionals in any trade as well as agents.

We encourage you to not only promote this opportunity to your commercial construction policyholders, but also personally take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about the following topics:

- Fatalities and Accident Prevention Programs Presented by Tarah Kile, MIOSHA Construction Safety Consultant
- Silica in Construction: Overview of Occupational Health Part 690 Presented by Doga Karyaldiz, MIOSHA Industrial Hygienist
- Fall Protection in Construction Presented by training representatives from Fasteners Inc. and Frankenmuth Insurance
